Dear friends and colleagues,

1. As I bid farewell to all of you at the end of my tenure as Chairman of the Ex-servicemen Development and Rehabilitation Corporation, I do so with a heart full of gratitude, pride, and admiration for each one of you.
2. Serving this esteemed organization has been a matter of great honour and privilege. During my time here, I had the opportunity to witness your dedication, sincerity, and tireless efforts in advancing the welfare and rehabilitation of Ex-servicemen and their families.
3. Together, we have achieved several important milestones. I am proud that under our collective leadership and teamwork, we were able to initiate new projects such as uniform and garment manufacturing, establish Neeti Medicals in various districts across Kerala, and begin solar panel installation ventures. These initiatives were not merely projects they were steps towards creating sustainable employment & rehabilitations opportunities thereby strengthening our organization, and contributing to the progress of our fraternity.
4. None of these accomplishments would have been possible without your cooperation, commitment, and unwavering support. Every success we celebrate today is the result of your hard work and dedication.
5. As I move on from this role, I leave with immense confidence that the Corporation is in capable hands. I am certain that you will continue to grow stronger, reach greater heights and uphold the noble mission of serving those who have served our nation.
6. I extend my heartfelt thanks to each employee, officers and staff member for your friendship, respect, and support throughout my journey here.
7. May you all be blessed with success, good health and happiness in the years ahead.

With warm regards and sincere gratitude,

Lt Col Sasidharan MK (Retd)

Chairman,
Ex-servicemen Development and Rehabilitation Corporation
